Chase N. Peterson Heritage Center

This all-you-care-to-eat dining hall is open seven days a week and is where students with meal plans eat the majority of their meals while in school. However, anyone can enjoy breakfast, lunch, or dinner here by conveniently paying at the entrance. It features a rotating menu and the largest variety of food options on campus, including a vegan and vegetarian section, a custom-order grill, a salad bar, sandwich station, Belgian waffle station, and an exhibition station that is used for cooking demonstrations, made-to-order meals, and more. Additionally, the PHC Dining Hall hosts events and programs several times each month, including the largest Mardi Gras celebration on campus every February.

J. Willar Marriott Library

Mom's Café is affectionately named after a homegrown restaurant started by Myrtle Lee Fulton in Mesa, Arizona. Myrtle's restaurant started as a simple hamburger stand in her front yard in the early 1900s.

"Mom's Café" soon blossomed into a full-fledged restaurant, and her son Ira helped as bus boy, dishwasher, and even grill cook. In recognition of a generous gift given by Ira Fulton and his wife Mary Lou, the library now has its own Mom's Café. Located on level 1 of the Marriott Library, Mom's Café is open seven days a week and has extra late hours during finals. In addition to the prepackaged snacks, salads, sandwiches, and bottled beverages found at several other locations on campus, Mom's Café also serves hot breakfast items, fresh-baked Freschetta pizzas, and Caffè Ibis coffee. It also offers a full specialty drink menu (lattes, mochas, etc.)

Eccles Health Sciences Education Building

The England Hub is a small café with plenty of seating, including booths and indoor and outdoor tables. It serves made-to-order breakfast each morning as well as fresh pastries, bagels, and Caffè Ibis coffee and specialty drinks. Caffè Ibis comes from Logan, Utah, and has been recognized as a "green business" since 1976. It supplies "triple certified" (organic, shade grown, and fair trade) coffee. The England Hub also serves soups, makes custom sandwiches and burgers, and provides grab-n-go items for customers on the run. With a day's notice, the Hub can prepare boxed lunches for groups and individuals.
